What's New?

Policy

- CPP-III-C-4-400, Missing Young Adults 18-21 Years Old: this new issuance has been created in order to provide guidance to CP&P Workers regarding the handling of cases when a young adult, age 18 – 21, becomes a missing person. This guidance is needed as the current missing youth policy only applies to youth under age 18. This new policy provides direction on determining whether a young adult is missing, along with appropriate follow up, including when law enforcement should be contacted.

What's Revised?

Forms

- CP&P Form 26-53c, Individual and Family Assessment Outline – Adoption (Parts A &B): as part of the Office of Policy's ongoing form reconciliation, CP&P Form 26-53c has been updated in the Policy Manual to reflect the current version found in NJ Spirit.
